Wednesday and brought to the city.

A suffering public feel very grateful for the cool nights of the past week. The fastious "skate" is not quite so numerous.
The Corinthian Baptist Church made their first payment on their church, corner North and Spring streets, last Monday.

Mary E. Marshall has brought suit for divorce against Simon Marshall. These parties have been married about ten days.
Maggie Mitchell will begin an engagement at English's Opera House Monday evening, October 17. "All the Rage" is the title of the play.

The third Sunday in this month is set apart by the congregation of Corinthian Baptist Church for a grand rally to raise funds for the church.

Jack Garber, foreman of Smith's livery stable, was seriously stabbed Thursday night by an unknown man with whom he had an altercation about a buggy. No arrests.

The "Legion of Honor" is to be the attraction at English's next week. The play is highly spoken of by the press of the country and will no doubt draw immense audiences.

Quite a number of saloon keepers have decided to keep the back doors of their saloons open to-morrow for the "accommodation of their regular customers." It is said that they have employed able counsel in case they are prosecuted.

There are various rumors about about certain officers of some of our secret societies of a very unwholesome nature. It is said that more than one of them have been misappropriating the lodge funds, and a big convulsion may be looked for soon.

Hamilton Butler, who on trial for assault and battery on Anna Steen, had a bawdily warrant issued against him by his father, by whom it seems he has two children. Ham. offered to marry the woman, she being willing, but his brother stated to the Court that Butler had a wife and family in Louisville. He was sent to the bastille.

Quite an affecting incident occurred in this city Thursday of last week at the residence of Mr. York Lamb, on North Tennessee street.
About twenty years ago, at the beginning of the Rebellion, Mr. Lamb, then residing at Frankfort, Ky., was separated from his son, Olliver, and never saw him afterward until last week. The son, who is known as Olliver Williams, has lived in Brazil, and while shaving a gentleman in his barber shop accidentally learned from his customer that his father had been living in this city for more than four years. He immediately came here and found to his great joy that his informant was correct, and the long separated father, mother, sisters and brothers were once more united. The son, Olliver Williams, was a member of the 28th U. S. C. T., raised in this city, and is well known on the Wabash.

Mr. John Gibbs, of Chicago and Miss.
Lacy Shelton, of this city, were united in matrimony, at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 17, Elizabeth street, September 28.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
Thomas Smith. The bride was beautifully attired in cream colored silk, train, and carriage. The wedding party was in Chicago where they will reside.

Officer Holt Stabbed.
Last Sunday morning patrolman Henry Holt and Benjamin Thornton arrested Jas.
Fry for disturbing the peace. Thornton remained on the beat, and Holt started for the station with Fry. At the corner of Indiana avenue and Mississippi Streets, the prisoner attempted to escape by striking the officer, and then running. Holt, however, grabbed him and threw him to the ground. The officer then discovered that he had been stabbed in the face several times by Fry. In the confusion following, the latter managed to escape, after being shot at several times.
Holt received three cuts, but none of them are dangerous.

OBITUARY.
John W. Sweeney.
The many friends of the above named gentlemen were very much surprised last Saturday to hear that he had died Friday evening, from hemorrhage of the bowels. Mr.
Sweeney had been sick for several weeks, but it was not thought that his illness would prove fatal. He suffered a relapse Friday, and died the same evening. Deceased was born in Greensburg, Ky., Jan. 27, 1845, where he lived most of his life. He joined the Baptist church at the age of 17, and has resided here since. He was a member of that church.
During the late civil war he enlisted as a private in the 13th U. S. C. T., and was afterward promoted to orderly sergeant. He was honorable discharged at the close of the war.
He came to this city in 1872, and has since resided here, respected by all who knew him. Mr. Sweeney was a member of Central Lodge, F. A. M., Alpha Chapter, No. 13, and Gethsemane Commandery, No. 1, in all of which he held prominent positions. At the time of his death, deceased was sexton of Dr.

Bartlett's Presbyterian church. His funeral occurred Sunday afternoon at the Second Baptist church. Remarks were made by the pastor, and Revs. Bartlett and Trevan.
The remains were conducted to and from the church by the masonic societies of which deceased was a member. Mr. Sweeney was twice married, the last time to Miss Lida Brown of this city about three years ago.
He leaves one child by his first marriage and two by the last.

Misfortune's Reward.
Mrs. Todd, wife of Henry Todd, the fugitive from justice recently taken back to Shelbyville, Ky., has had quite a varied experience since she left here a few weeks ago.
She was very severely injured in the railroad accident by which the sheriff having Todd in charge was killed, and her husband has been confined in the penitentiary for three years. But as an offset to all these misfortunes, she has received $700 from the railroad, as a compensation for her injuries. She is doubtless satisfied, by the brimfuls received in the accident, for from all we can learn Todd was not worth $700 to her.

In Memoriam.
In behalf of Central Lodge, No. 1, Alpha Chapter No. 13, and Gethsemane Commandery K. T. No. 9, we sadly submit the following:
Whereas, Inasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst one of our beloved and most worthy brothers, John W. Sweeney who died Sept. 30th 1881.
And,
Whereas, By this sad affliction we realize the fact that we have met our deceased brother in conversation on the last time, And as a brother of our order and as a friend and relative we feel sad, but by Divine help we can say "Not will, but thine be done."

He was punctual and manly, honorable and faithful. He was a member in every particular, and he graced all the positions that he filled in our now distressed and mourning lodges. As a friend he was confiding and sincere; as a husband, brother and father he was all that could be desired, and it is sad to know that so good a man has been taken from his family, his friends, and from his lodges; but God has him to that Grand Assembly which He, Himself, presides, there to mingle with the Holy in praises, and respond to the tender to his bereaved family our heart-felt sympathies and the God of Heaven will wipe away their tears and make this sad affliction a blessing. Resolve that we deeply cherish his memory and fondly remember his Christian virtues and endeavor to exemplify the great Principles of Love, Friendship and Truth.

Corinthian Baptist Church.
Editors Indianapolis Leader: There has been considerable clamor by certain persons about the organization of the Corinthian Baptist Church, and Elder Broyles, in a communication to the American Baptist, states that only eighty-five members left the Second Church, and they are a disorderly body, both of which statements are untrue. One hundred and thirty-five members withdrew, whose names we can give if necessary, and since then our number has been increased to 160. He also makes a false statement in saying that the new organization is receiving excluded members without making any ac-knowledgegment to the Church. He states that those who withdrew were the fault-finders and grumblers instead of being the financial stay of the Church. Some of us have been members of the Second Baptist Church for more than twenty years. We have stood by it through thick and thin, until we saw that the financial affairs were not being properly conducted, then we began to complain. We appealed to the Church and were voted down by members who neither knew nor cared anything about the management of church affairs. Elder Broyles says we were censured by the church, and then went out.
This is untrue. If we were censured at all it was after we went out. We were organized into a body according to methods taught us by Elder Broyles himself, as being necessary to the formation of a Baptist Missionary Church. We were declared a church by Deacon R. C. Turner, who has been ordained by the Laymen of hands.

The Elder states that if we had asked for our letters in a proper manner they would have been granted. We appointed a committee with instructions to ask for our letters. The request was refused by the Elder because we did not go before him and confess that we had sinned against him and before God. What a requirement! By the help of God we are going to do all we can.
We have bought a church and made the first payment. By the assistance of many well-wishers we hope to do much good. The third Sabbath in this month has been set apart for our grand rally.

Mr. H. Gibbs and Mr. S. Weaver will be with us next Sunday.
F. K. and W. J. took in the Opera last Wednesday night.
P. F. known as Mittee has received a situation loading gravel.

Mr. G. A. is the most prominent horse dealer of the South Side.
The Smart dealers having blacked boots during his visit to Cleveland.

L. W. L. is expected every day to go insane over the lovely and only F. F.
Samuel Jones leaving home last week has but once been heard of since his departure.

Mr. A. T. is the most charming masher of the South Side. The ladies say he is a "thorough bred."

On the account of the illness of Mrs. Emma P. S. Mrs. Hattie Toney was obliged to postpone her visit.

J. W. C. is visiting the South Side a little too often. If he doesn't look out he will get his bangs spoiled.

The Misses I. W. H. R. A. H. and H. H. daughters of the S. S. We have a great many men in our part of the city; but few gentlemen.

Our young ladies want to know why the young gent don't give some large party. I cannot explain, but ask Mr. R. M. what he thinks.

A certain young lady of our part wants to know why "Heliopore" doesn't let some one else have J. W. C. for a season. Let loose, Heliopore.

The Jubilee singers of our city led by Mrs.
Washington and Mr. Primm, were to give an entertainment at the Prospect St. Methodist church Tuesday evening but there not being a sufficient audience they could not exhibit.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.
The five associates are F. H. J. R. and
M. Next!
The heart of F. K. rejoiceth. The prodigal hath returned.
Mr. Abraham Allen is now captain of the bell-boys' night watch at the Grand.

Mr. W. J. and Miss F. K. were at the opera Wednesday night. I wonder where Willie L. was.
Jesse Jones has left Matthews' Tonsoria Parlors and is seeking for knowledge at School No. 24.

Miss Florence Keller entertained a few of her friends Tuesday evening, at her residence. Those present enjoyed themselves fine.

Inquiries are being made as to the whereabouts of Mr. L. L. Come out and show yourself, Louis.

C. Patterson and R. W. Thompson are leaving the type setting trade in the office of the Leader.

Mr. P. A. Fisher has entered the employment of the Indianapolis Car Works.
Mittee general good luck.

Mr. W. H. of the Southside, is gradually blooming out to be a fine sport. Keep it up, my boy, you'll do.

Prof. Smart is developing quite a talent for acting. Ask any one who saw him during his recent engagement with the "Uncle Tom" party.

Oh say! was K. M. and P. F. at the opera this week.
E. and M. C. L. seem to be a rather distant couple.

Springfield, Ill.
Ask Will Lee if he knows "Chas. May." Jordan Murry went to Champagne last week to attend to some lodge business.
However he spent a very enjoyable time in Peoria.

Mrs. Geo. W. Smith returned to her home in Sydney last Monday, after a very extensive tour to her brother, Mr. Monroe Oglesby.
Rev. N. J. McCracken and wife left last week for Pontiac, the place of his appointment. May success follow them.

Miss Euretta Florville returned from Chicago last week.
Miss Mary Ritchson, of Jacksonville, spent Sabbath in this city.

Mrs. Barnett and daughter Laura came down from Jacksonville to attend the Smith-Gordon wedding.

Misses Jennie King and Lillie Florville spent last Sunday in Jacksonville, visiting friends and relatives.

Henry Vantrees was appointed patrolman last week, owing to the resignation of police officer Williams, who was caught taking a bribe of $300 from one Holmes, that had stolen $3,600 in St. Louis. Mr. Vantrees well deserves the appointment. He is a good, responsible man, and will discharge his duties satisfactorily to the city and with honor to the colored people.

SMITH-GORDON.
One of the grandest weddings that was ever celebrated among the colored people of this vicinity, occurred last Thursday night week, the principal actors in this drama being no less persons than Mr. Geo. H.
Smith and Miss Belle Gordon, both of whom were supported by Mr. Jerry McKinney and Miss Mary Caryn, Allie and Laura Killean.
The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. When the bride, groom and attendants appeared, profound silence prevailed. They marched slowly down the aisle, the attendants standing at the right and left, the bride and groom taking a position in front of the altar, where the Rev.
E. C. Joiner performed the ceremonies in a very admirable manner, after which the benediction was pronounced and the newly-wedded pair passed out of the church to their carriage, which conveyed them to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods, where an elegant repast was tendered them. The newly-wedded couple received numerous congratulations and the best wishes of all present for their future happiness. A list of presents is here given: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith, handsome rosewood piano; Young Social Literary Club, silver casket and butter dish; Misses Josie and Ella Coleman, butter dish; Mr. William Smith, pickle cask; Mrs.
Henry Vantrees, towel; Mrs. Mary Bol-lina, towels; Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, wall bracket; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Duncan, cut glass cake dishes; Mrs. Sarah Smith, vase; Mr. George Ross, pair vases; Mrs. and Emma Duff, cut-glass vases; Mrs. and Mr.
Hankins, lace dish; Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, sonville, set silver teaspoons; Miss Sallie Williams and Mr. Henry Clark, chamber set; Miss Johanna Doyle, set glassware; Mr. and Mrs. Flynn, set glassware; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young, set cut-glass goblets; Mr. J. L. Campbell, and Mr. Samuel Willis, set knives and forks; Miss Mattie Mills, lace escrow; Wm. Lee, pair vases.

LITTLE MOS.
Greencastle, Ind.—Rue was somewhat rattled last week.....J. W. Cain was in Louisville last week.....Mrs. Nanny Jones returned from Terre Haute Tuesday.
.....There is considerable trouble in our city, caused by the action of the School Board.....On the evening of the last election of councilmen a vow was made by some of the candidates running, that if we would support them that they would make a change in the School Board.....Those men were elected; and they did make a change; and what was it? They voted E. D. Anderson, who was the President of the School Board out, and put in Mr. Samuel Catherwood, who is a democrat of the worst type; and the colored children have to either go to the First ward in a basement that is not fit to store apples for winter, on account of its dampness, and yet these men claim to be the best friends the colored man has; and while the School Board is composed of two Republicans and one Democrat, two-thirds of the colored children have to stay at home, because their parents are afraid to send them in the basement, which was declared unhealthy. We think in the next Council there will be a change, not for the worse, but for the benefit of the colored children.
And as the case stands, the best thing parents can do is to stop their children from going to this unhealthy place, and make a change by their votes in the coming election, which some have promised to do, and Rue will do all he can to help them. Let us come together, make out our ticket and vote the same, and then see what our Republican friends think, and let every colored man remember, "United we stand, divided we fall."

SERIOUSLY STABBED.
Jack Garber, Foreman of Henry Smith's Livery Stable, Stabbed by an Unknown Man.

A most cold blooded stabbing occurred about 6 o'clock Thursday, in front of Henry Smith's livery stable, situated on the alley running from Washington to Market streets between Illinois and Meridian streets. The facts connected with the startling act are as follows: Yesterday afternoon a man came to the livery stable and hired a rig from Jack Garber, the foreman of the stable.
The man had a horse and buggy, and told him that he was in the act of taking it when a good-humored way told Garber that he could not pay for the team, but would call around on Monday and Garber told him that that was not the way to do business, when the stranger said he would go in the saloon owned by Smith and settle the matter with him (Smith) and then return.
The man then put his hand in his outside pocket, took out a cigar and handed it to Garber, who was in the act of taking it when the stranger dealt him a terrible blow in the breast with a dagger, when Garber fell and the stranger ran down the alley and disappeared in the darkness.
Garber was taken into the stable, laid on a cot, and Dr. Bigelow summoned, who found by probing that the wound was at least two and a half inches deep, and of a very serious nature, and it can not yet be told whether it will prove fatal or not. It is not known who the man is, but from the description it is thought that he is employed at the Atlas Works. Garber bears a good reputation, and the stabbing was most uncalled for.

The Sunday Question.
A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Trades Union was held Thursday at Hedderick's saloon. The object of the meeting was to appoint a Committee to wait upon James T. Mitchell and James Lamb to employ them as their attorneys, and take action on the question of opening their saloons on Sunday. Messrs. John Duncan, Fred Rand and Philip Kappeler were also consulted.
It is the desire on the part of the members of the organization to conduct their business in the same manner as they did prior to the enforcement of the Sunday laws and ordinances. They state that they do not desire to transact their business openly, but to conduct it in a quiet, orderly manner. They are unanimous in denouncing the noisy saloon keepers, and say that any man who will tolerate a boisterous place on the Sabbath will be immediately expelled from their organization. Their plans for future action, if they have any, were not made known. It is stated, however, that more than the usual number of saloons will be open on Sunday.
